THE COMMERCIAL ANNUAL:
OR,
A Tabular Statement
OF THE
EXTERNAL COMMERCE OF BENGAL,
DURING THE YEARS
1840-41 AND 1841-42.

BY
E. WILKINSON,
EXPORT SUPERVISOR, CALCUTTA CUSTOM HOUSE,
COMPILER AND PUBLISHER OF THE FOLLOWING PERIODICALS,
*The Weekly Report of Exports—the Monthly Shipping Lists—the Calcutta
Commercial Guide to Imports and Exports—and the Quarterly Statements of Export Cargoes, from hence to Europe and America.*

CALCUTTA:
Bishop's College Press.
1842.

BY HIS LORDSHIP'S PERMISSION

THE COMMERCIAL ANNUAL,

FOR THE YEARS

1840-41 AND 1841-42,

IS

MOST RESPECTFULLY DEDICATED

TO THE RIGHT HONORABLE

The Lord Ellenborough,

GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA, ETC. ETC.

BY HIS LORDSHIP'S OBEDIENT HUMBLE SERVANT,

E. WILKINSON.

P R E F A C E.

The return of the Compiler from England, enabled him to resume charge of the “Annual” in January last, and he hopes that its early publication this year, will afford a sufficient guarantee to his Supporters, that his anxiety to supply them with as early information of the mercantile operations of the past commercial year, as a due regard to correctness will admit of, has not in the slightest degree abated.

An increased demand for last year’s “Annual” having satisfied the undersigned, that the plan adopted by Mr. Campbell, of prefixing an “Abstract of the results shewn by the Tables embodied in this work, in order to facilitate the enquiries of those who have not sufficient leisure to wade through long figured statements,”—met with public approbation,—the Abstract has been given in the Volume for the present year.

Adverting to the remarks made by the Editor of the Calcutta Star, in reviewing the Commercial Annual for 1840-41, the Compiler would be happy to make the “Annual” a more perfect record for statistical reference than it is, as now published, did not the pressure of his official avocations, render it impossible for him to devote more time to its preparation, than that involved in the examination and correction of the numerous Tables it contains.

E. WILKINSON.

CALCUTTA JULY 1841.

PREFACE.

The preparation of the "Commercial Annual" for the past Mercantile Year was entrusted to me by Mr. Wilkinson, on his departure for England on leave.

Independent of a conviction that the chief value of a Compilation of this description consists in its correctness, it has been my anxious endeavour to merit the confidence reposed in me by the Proprietor of the Annual. With reference therefore to the great care bestowed upon their preparation, I hope I may venture to anticipate that but few (if any) errors will be discovered in the Tabular Statements, herein submitted for the information of the Mercantile Community.

I have made a slight addition to this year's Annual, by prefixing an Abstract of the results shewn in the Tables, in order to facilitate the inquiries of those who have not sufficient leisure to wade through long figured Statements.

N. CAMPBELL.
